

CONTENT PER TERM

• GEOGRAPHY •

GRADE 7

TERM 1

• Map Skills •

TERM 2

• Structure of the Earth • Volcanoes • Earthquakes • Floods •

TERM 3

• Population Concepts • Factors Affecting Birth and Death Rates •
• The World's Population Growth •

TERM 4

• Natural Resources •

EXAMPLE:

EXTRACT FROM A TEST PAPER

• GEOGRAPHY •

GRADE 7

TERM 1

• Map Skills •

Section A | Multiple Choice

1. Circle the letter before the correct answer.
 - 1.1 What is a large-scale map?
 - a) A map of a large area with many details
 - b) A map of a small area with many details
 - c) A map of a large area with few details
 - d) A map of a small area with few details
 - 1.2 What is usually indicated by a red cross on a map?
 - a) A school
 - b) A hospital
 - c) A church
 - d) A park
 - 1.3 How is the location of places determined on a street guide?
 - a) By using a line scale
 - b) By reading a key
 - c) By using an index
 - d) By determining compass points
 - 1.4 What is drawn on a sketch map?
 - a) Details of large cities
 - b) Details of small villages
 - c) A route from one place to another
 - d) A list of symbols and their meanings
 - 1.5 How can you find north in the Southern Hemisphere without a compass?
 - a) By using the sun with a watch
 - b) By studying the stars
 - c) By using a GPS device
 - d) By remembering the wind directions
 - 1.6 What is a line scale on a map?
 - a) A list indicating the main points
 - b) A scale used to measure distances
 - c) A line used to draw symbols
 - d) A line indicating the compass directions

- 1.7 What is an example of a large-scale map?
 - a) A map of a country
 - b) A map of a local village
 - c) A map of a continent
 - d) A map of a province

- 1.8 How can indirect distances on a map be measured?
 - a) By using a line scale
 - b) By using a compass
 - c) By using a GPS device
 - d) By using a measuring string

- 1.9 What is the purpose of latitude and longitude lines on a world map?
 - a) To help determine the scale of the map
 - b) To indicate the position of places on the Earth
 - c) To indicate the temperature of different parts of the Earth
 - d) To measure the size of continents

- 1.10 What is the purpose of a street map?
 - a) To indicate the location of large cities
 - b) To show the entire topography of a country
 - c) To show the streets and places of interest of a small village or town
 - d) To indicate the climate patterns of an area

- 1.11 How are symbols used on a map?
 - a) To make the map colorful
 - b) To indicate important places such as schools and hospitals
 - c) To indicate the direction of the wind
 - d) To determine the scale of the map

- 1.12 What is a useful skill when describing a route orally?
 - a) To mention the temperature of the places along the way
 - b) To tell the history of the area
 - c) To explain the distance and direction of each turn
 - d) To describe the topography of the area

Section B | True or False

1. Are the following statements True or False?

1.1 Street maps show an area as a bird would see it from the air _____

1.2 Being able to read and communicate using maps is an important skill _____

1.3 A large-scale map provides more specific information about a small area than a small-scale _____

1.4 The use of a key on a map is not important for its interpretation _____

1.5 To describe a route orally, you should not include estimated distances _____

