Sleepovers

By Jacqueline Wilson Illustrations by Nick Sharratt

"Guess what!" said Amy. "It's my birthday next week and my mum says I can invite all my special friends for a sleepover party."

"Great," said Bella.

"Fantastic," said Chloe.

"Wonderful," said Emily.

I didn't say anything. I just smiled. Hopefully. I wasn't sure if I was one of Amy's special friends.

Well, it wasn't quite a new school, it was quite old, with winding stairs and long polished corridors and lots and lots of classrooms. I still got a bit lost sometimes.

I liked Emily sooooo much. I wished she could be my best friend. But she already had Chloe for her best friend.

I didn't think much of Chloe. I liked Amy and Bella though. We'd started to go round in a little bunch of five, Amy and Bella and Emily and Chloe and me. We formed this special secret club. We called ourselves the Alphabet Girls.

It's because of our names. I'm Daisy. So our first names start with A B C D and E. I was the one who spotted this.

I wasn't sure if Amy's birthday sleepover was strictly reserved for best friends only. Amy went on talking and talking about her sleepover and how she knew she wasn't going to sleep all night long. I still didn't say anything. I tried to keep on smiling. Emily looked at me. Then she looked at Amy. "Hey, Amy. Daisy can come too, can't she?" "Of course," said Amy. "Whoopee!" I yelled. My mouth smiled until it almost tickled my ears. "Really, Daisy!" said Chloe, clutching her ears in an affected way. "You practically deafened me." 1. What is the name or title of this book? 2.
